FLAG

Paragraph 1 – Greeting

Begin with a formal salutation from your delegation, setting a diplomatic tone consistent with United Nations conventions.

Paragraph 2 – Background of the Topic

Provide a concise overview of the issue.

Explain its origin, global importance, and your country's general opinion on the matter.

Paragraph 3 – Country's Position

- Describe your country's perspective on the issue and current involvement.
- Explain what actions your country has taken, is taking, or plans to take.
- Support your statements with reliable data, treaties, or policy references.

Paragraph 4 – Possible Solutions

- Present concrete and realistic proposals organized as:
- Short-term actions (immediate or ongoing measures)

- Mid-term actions (initiatives achievable within one to three years)
- Long-term actions (sustainable strategies or reforms)

Each proposal should align with your country's policy and international commitments.

Paragraph 5 – Relevant Blocs and Additional Comments

- Identify your country's key alliances or regional blocs (e.g., G7, G77, OAS, AU, EU, ASEAN) and how they relate to the topic.
- You may also include additional comments, recent developments, or other relevant perspectives.

Paragraph 6 – References

- List at least five (5) sources in APA 7th edition format.
- Sources should include official documents, academic research, credible international organizations, and reputable media outlets.
